

EPHESIANS 2:11-16

Dear Heavenly Father,

I bring before You the Gentiles and the Jews who live in the land of Canaan.

At this time there are many who are without Christ, being aliens from the Commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world.

I pray for those Lord who are afar off, and I ask in the name of Jesus, that they would be made near by Your precious blood.

For You are their peace, because You have made both Jew and Gentile one. Lord you have broken down the middle wall of partition between them.

Lord You abolished in Your flesh the hatred and hostility which exists today in Your Holy Land.

You also abolished the law of commandments contained in ordinances so that in You the two could become one.

I pray that Gentiles and Jews are made one through the precious blood of Your Son Jesus Christ.

One new man, and so making peace.

I pray that You would end the hatred and hostility that exists today, and reconcile both Jews and Gentiles to Yourself.

I ask this in the precious name of Your beloved Son, Jesus.

AMEN
